

CHS Marching Band Financial Commitment Pledge

- A. All extracurricular Band programs are paid for entirely by the participating students and their families.
- B. Each student in extracurricular band activities is provided with numerous fundraising activities to be able to earn all of his/her fees. Each participant is expected to fundraise his or her fees or pay these out-of-pocket.
- C. Fees must be earned or paid according to the schedule provided with that program. This is to ensure that all Band Booster bills for that activity can be paid on time, and as the expenses are incurred.
- D. Winter programs of Jazz Band, Winterguard, and Winter Drumline are funded by those participants. Fees, forms, and schedules will be provided in October for those participants.
- E. Marching band fees for the 2007 season were calculated based on the predicted expenses for the program, divided by the projected number of marching student. This fee is $500 per participant.
- F. The first payment for Marching Band is due by July 1, 2007: $125.00

The Band Boosters are offering a means to spread out the $500 Marching Band fee per student for the 2007 Marching Band Season: you may pay $75 a month from June through November with a final payment of $50 in December. This is a way to spread out the cost and limit the burden in a given month. If a month is missed, you can catch up the next month.

This is a minimum payment schedule. Early payment of fees is accepted.

G. Monies earned or paid toward a program are non-refundable and may not be applied to the student's account for the next fiscal year of band (fiscal year is 6/1 to 5/31).

H. Fund-raising opportunities usually include Speedway workdays, drink sales, yard sales, and many other sales.

2007/2008 Band Financial Commitment Pledge

Student's Name (printed) _____

We have read the above statement A-G. We pledge to earn or pay $500 for the student, named above, to participate in the CHS 2006 Marching Band. We understand that the Band's extracurricular activities are funded completely by the participating member. We also understand that if a student chooses not to participate in fund-raising or paying their fees, they may not be allowed to participate in future self-funded activities of the band
